

Farmers Market Entertainment & Community Programming

June 5 Market Opening Day

Enjoy a jazz duet by Elegant Ensembles. Get your gardening questions answered by Master Gardeners and the Hoffman Estates Garden Club and explore services from the Village of Schaumburg.

June 12 Meg Thomas brings lively steel drum music to the market. Stop by booths from the Schaumburg Township Historical Society, Bike Patrol, and Nursing Division to learn about local programs and services.

June 19 Enjoy classical music performances from students and teachers of the Midwest Conservatory of Music. Meet with State Representative Michelle Mussman's office and representatives from the Schaumburg Police Department.

June 26 Rock out with Double Helix, featuring talented local high school students. Visit Bike Patrol, the Schaumburg Township District Library, and Schaumburg Township for community information and resources.

July 3 Celebrate the holiday weekend with jazz and pop favorites from Elegant Ensembles Trio. Master Gardeners and representatives from the Schaumburg Police Department will also have information and resources.

July 10 Enjoy live performances by the Midwest Conservatory of Music while you shop. Visit with representatives from the Village of Schaumburg, the Schaumburg Township Historical Society, and Senator Laura Murphy's office.

July 17 Meg Thomas returns with Caribbean-inspired steel drum music. Connect with Bike Patrol, the American Legion, Schaumburg Township, and representatives from the Schaumburg Police Department.

July 24 Singer-songwriter Petter Wahlback performs live at the market. Learn more about local programs and initiatives from the Schaumburg Township District Library and the Nursing Division.

July 31 Visit with MWRD Commissioner Eira L. Corral Sepúlveda and representatives from Bike Patrol, Commissioner Kevin B. Morrison's office, and State Representative Michelle Mussman's office for local updates and resources.

Aug. 7 National Farmers Market Week

Families can enjoy an Instrument Petting Zoo hosted by the Midwest Conservatory of Music, where kids and adults can try a variety of musical instruments. Meet representatives from the Village of Schaumburg, Master Gardeners, and American Farmland Trust.

Aug. 14 Enjoy rock and pop favorites from Rachel of Double Helix. Stop by booths hosted by the Schaumburg Township Historical Society, Bike Patrol, and Senator Laura Murphy's office.

Aug. 21 Singer-songwriter Mark Dvorak performs live music throughout the market. Representatives from the Schaumburg Police Department, Nursing Division, and Schaumburg Township will also be on site.

Aug. 28 A violinist from Elegant Ensembles brings jazz and pop favorites to the market. Visit with representatives from State Representative Michelle Mussman's office and the Schaumburg Township District Library.

Sept. 4 Labor Day Weekend

Enjoy live performances from the Midwest Conservatory of Music while you shop. Stop by the Village of Schaumburg's booth for program information and the Master Gardeners for gardening advice.

Sept. 11 Learn about local history and community programs from the Schaumburg Township Historical Society and Schaumburg Township representatives.

Sept. 18 The Midwest Conservatory of Music returns with live performances. Meet representatives from Commissioner Kevin B. Morrison's office and the Schaumburg Police Department.

Sept. 25 Visit with MWRD Commissioner Eira L. Corral Sepúlveda and representatives from State Representative Michelle Mussman's office, the Schaumburg Township District Library, and the Nursing Division.

Oct. 2 Master Gardeners return to answer lawn and garden questions. Representatives from the Schaumburg Police Department will also be on site.

Oct. 9 Visit with representatives from State Representative Michelle Mussman's office and Schaumburg Township for information on local services and initiatives.

Oct. 16 Representatives from the Nursing Division will be available with wellness information and community resources.

Oct. 23 Stop by the Schaumburg Township District Library booth to learn about upcoming programs, services, and resources.

Oct. 30 Last Market Day & Halloween Weekend

Stock up on your favorites before we say farewell for the season!